MRS. ROBERT CHARLES OUELLETTE
... On Honeymoon

(Portrait by Seeman)

Anna Thomas Becomes Mrs. Ouellette on Oct. 17

Miss Anna Katherine Thomas was a lovely bride as she walked down the aisle of the Nativity Catholic Church Thursday morning at 10 o'clock for her marriage to Robert Charles Ouellette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmour Ouellette of South Attleboro, Mass. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Holt, 614 Pine Dr., Torrance.

For her wedding, the bride wore an original gown, fashioned with an Alencon lace fitted bodice with fingertip sleeves. The bouffant tulle skirt over satin had front and back panels of Alencon lace. A pearl and lace cap secured the fingertip illusion bridal veil and the bride carried a white prayer book and a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. Mr. Holt walked to the altar with his daughter.

Miss Mary Tremblay was the maid of honor. She wore pink net over pink satin and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations.

Phil Morgavo stood as best man and ushers were Robert Gilmer and Ned Morang.

Mrs. Minnie McConlogue, at the organ, played the wedding marches and accompanied Miss Diane Powers who sang "Ave Maria," "On This Day," "Panic Angelicus" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiated at the vow exchange and the nuptial mass.

A reception was held at the parish hall following the wedding and Mrs. Robert Gilmer, sister of the bride, registered the guests.

After their honeymoon, the couple will be at home at 133 E. 16th St., Long Beach.

The bride attended Torrance schools graduating from the local high school in June 1957. She was chosen "Miss Personality" in the recent Miss Torrance contest.

The bridegroom attended the Sacred Heart Academy in Central Falls, R. I. and was graduated from the Attleboro High School in 1956. He is now serving with the United States Navy, aboard the U. S. S. Da Haven, stationed in Long Beach.

Coming here from Attleboro for the wedding were the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Edmour Ouellette, and his cousin, Miss Claire Bouchard.

The bridal party, family members and out-of-town guests were entertained at a dinner party in the early evening at the Palms restaurant.

Club Hears Exchange Students

Miss Mary Sippel, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Sippel and Miss Marjorie Towle, exchange students who spent the summer in Europe under the American Field Service program delighted the members of the Torrance Woman's club with an account of their European stay at the club's meeting on Wednesday.

Miss Sippel spent the summer in Finland and Miss Towle was in Sweden. Both girls said that they were under impressions that the two countries would be cold and barren due to their geographical locations but that they were surprised to find beautifully wooded countries. Each described the families with whom she resided and told of their friendliness and hospitality.

And not to be forgotten, was the "five-meals-a-day" custom of these happy, healthy people whose recreation includes outdoor sports with sail boating as the most popular.

Mrs. John Melville, president of the Torrance chapter of American Field Service, presented the two high school students.

During a business session conducted by Mrs. R. E. Moffit, plans for the club bazaar to be held Dec. 5 were made.

Mrs. Robert Triplitt, membership chairman introduced three new members. They are Mmes. Edward Forgeron, R. E. Beecher, and Gladys Frazier.

MISS MAURINE ANN BRADFORD
... Future Bride

(Portrait by Seeman)

G. A. Bradfords Reveal Maurine's Troth Today

An announcement of interest today is being made by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Bradford, 1323 Beech Ave. of the engagement of their daughter, Maurine Ann, to Richard LeRoy Salberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Salberg of Ventura.

No date has been set for the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Bradford are entertaining over 100 friends and relatives this afternoon at a party at the Portuguese Bend club to reveal their daughter's engagement. A pink and white color scheme will be used in decorating the club.

The future bride was graduated from Torrance High school and is now a sophomore at Whittier College. She is majoring in Home Economics.

The benedict, a Ventura High School graduate, received his degree in accounting from Whittier in June. Tuesday he will be inducted in the United States Army.

Earl Hubaceks Greet New Son Michael Dana

A bundle of joy in the personage of six weeks old Michael Dana Hubacek, is causing no end of excitement at the 5608 Rockview Dr. home of the happy new parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hubacek. The Hubaceks made a hurried trip east for the private adoption of their handsome new son. He was less than 24 hours old when he started for his California home.

Michael tips the scale at 6 pounds. He has a mass of dark hair and bright blue eyes.

On St. Michael's Feast Day, Sept. 23, the new baby was christened at St. Lawrence Catholic Church with the Rev. Charles Ara officiating. Godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Stange of Compton. A dinner party, following the christening, celebrated the event.

The baby's father is an inspection planner at Northrop Aircraft.

The Greenthumbers Garden club, of which Mrs. Hubacek has been an active member since its organization, gathered at the home of Mrs. Paul Kolleck on Oct. 8 to shower young Michael with gifts. His "welcoming" cake was adorned with a bright "stork" and stacks of beautiful and practical gifts were presented to him.
